

Research Programme Meeting
Impact of social prescribing on health & wellbeing
Monday 11th October 2021, 12.30pm-3.15pm

Programme (details may be subject to change)

12.30-12.45	Welcome, introduction, study background, context and overview	Professor Suzanne Moffatt Dr Nicola O'Brien
12.45-1.05	Outcomes, costs and "valuing" social prescribing	Professor John Wildman
1.05-1.40	Experiences of social prescribing: link worker and client perspectives	Dr Bethan Griffith Dr Kate Gibson Professor Tessa Pollard
1.40-1.55	Experiences of social prescribing during the COVID-19 pandemic	Dr Stephanie Morris Dr Josephine Wildman
1.55-2.05	10 minute comfort break
2.05-2.20	Panel Presentations: What implications do these findings have for the future of social prescribing in the UK?	Chair: Professor Clare Bamba Panellists: Jane Hartley Martin Cattermole Professor Chris Drinkwater Dr Stephanie Tierney Dr Kerry Husk
2.20-3.10	Discussion
3.10-3.15pm	Close	Professor Suzanne Moffatt